Mark	13 : 33 - 37

Next Week — Second Sunday of Advent

Isaiah	40 : 1 - 5, 9 - 11
2 Peter	3 : 8 - 14
Mark	1 : 1 - 8

Dear Parishioners,

As we begin the Season of Advent, are we spiritually prepared for the Lord's Coming? Next Monday, December 11 at 6:30PM, here at Saint Mark, we will have an opportunity to have our confession heard through a Parish Penance Service. Much like last year, we will have a number of priests from the Franklin Deanery celebrating this great sacrament of forgiveness. Please plan on attending!

With the Season of Advent, we anticipate the Coming of Christ. In the first two weeks, the readings focus on the Second Coming of Christ and the last two weeks focus on the First Coming of Christ--in His birth. Let us take time in this Advent Season to meditate on how the Lord is present within our lives and then witness to His love.

Over the course of the next month or so, we will be introducing and organizing two new ministries within the parish.

The first ministry is the Respect Life Committee and the second ministry is the Saint Vincent de Paul Society. Every parish in the Diocese of Harrisburg is asked to organize a Respect Life Committee so that an awareness of the dignity of all life can permeate the life of the parish. The Respect Life Committee will highlight all life issues from Conception until natural death.

The Saint Vincent de Paul Society assists the pastor in identifying and interviewing those people within our parish or in the community who are in need of food, clothing or shelter. After speaking with those who request assistance, the committee will then see to it that their needs are met with the appropriate funds or through other means. In the Greencastle and Mercersburg area, there are many people who are in need of assistance. Over the course of the last year and a half, we have fielded about 3 calls per week from people asking for assistance. We try to help those who request help to the best our ability, since this is our responsibility as Christians--to treat others like Christ Himself--especially those most in need! There are many people who call asking for a one or two night stay in a local motel, help with rent or utilities and with gas for their automobiles. While we do refer some to the Waynesboro Community Services for assistance, the Saint Vincent de Paul Society will assist me in being prudent in distributing these funds and at the same time, help those in need to get back on their feet.

Please be on the look out for further information about these two essential ministries of the Church!

May God bless you!

In Christ,
Fr. Sahd

REDISCOVERING THE
CALL TO SILENCE

“The word, in fact, can only be spoken and heard in silence, outward and inward.”

“Ours is not an age which fosters recollection. At times one has the impression that people are afraid of detaching themselves, even for a moment, from the mass media.”

“Only in silence can the word of God find a home in us, as it did in Mary, woman of the word and, inseparably, woman of silence.”

-Pope Benedict XVI
Verbum Domini,
September 2010

*Still as dew falls on the meadow,
Softly as the seed in sod,
Silent as a passing shadow,
Comes the mystery of God.*

Advent 2017

OFFICE FOR DIVINE WORSHIP

“The voice of one crying out in the desert...”

“He must increase and I must decrease.” Saint Augustine does not hesitate to declare: “All voices must decrease in the measure that one advances in the knowledge of Christ. The more wisdom reveals itself to us, the less we need the voice: the voice in the depths, the voice in the Apostles, the voice in the psalms, the voice in the Gospel. Let him come, the Word who was at the beginning! This Word who was God! Thus let the voice gradually cease to perform its function, as the soul progresses toward Christ. For God has a secret language, in many people he addresses the heart, and it is a mighty murmur in the great silence of the heart when he says: I am your salvation.”

The more man advances in the mystery of God, the more he loses speech. Man is enveloped in a power of love, and he becomes mute from astonishment and wonder. Before God, we disappear snapped up by the greatest silence.

The wisdom of God has generated in every person a great love that nourishes the little silence of the human heart. Astonishment at the divine silence closes our mouth, like a celebrant who, performing his priestly duties before God, burns incense and adores in silence. Nothing in the world is more important than the silence of God. No human noises, even the sweet sound of the Gospel, can express the magnificent silence of God.

- Robert Cardinal Sarah, The Power of Silence, #86-88.

Wait ... and let the silence speak a new year of grace

Our years are typically full of busyness, the schedule only amps up as the holidays approach. For me, this year has been no exception — between work and family and other activities — it’s been a year where “peace” and “silence” have not been common companions. These advent times of silence allow me to begin to settle my heart. I enter with anticipation into the silence. My prayer is that we might all have some quiet to reflect upon the true purpose of the Advent Season. I am reminded of what it must have been like for the ancient followers of God, awaiting the coming of the Messiah.

We, too, must wait. We wait upon the Lord to hear the cries of our hearts . . . We wait upon the Lord to see justice for the oppressed . . . We wait upon the Lord to feel hope in the midst of our despair and challenging times . . . We wait, in a season structured to remind us of silence and darkness, to see light and hear shouts of hope . . . We wait . . . We wait also for Him to return again . . . that in His coming, the world might again be made right.

- Mae Elise Cannon

“Watchfulness” as Preached by Blessed John Henry Newman

“True Christians, whoever they are, watch, and inconsistent Christians do not. Now what is watching?... Do you know the feeling in matters of this life, of expecting a friend, expecting him to come, and he delays? Do you know what it is to be in unpleasant company, and to wish for the time to pass away, and the hour strike when you may be at liberty? Do you know what it is to be in anxiety lest something should happen which may happen or may not, or to be in suspense about some important event, which makes your heart beat when you are reminded of it, and of which you think the first thing in the morning? Do you know what it is to have a friend in a distant country, to expect news of him, and to wonder from day to day what he is now doing, and whether he is well? Do you know what it is so to live upon a person who is present with you, that your eyes follow his, that you read his soul, that you see all its changes in his countenance, that you anticipate his wishes, that you smile in his smile, and are sad in his sadness, and are downcast when he is vexed, and rejoice in his successes?

To watch for Christ is a feeling such as all these; as far as feelings of this world are fit to shadow out those of another.

He watches for Christ who has a sensitive, eager, apprehensive mind; who is awake, alive, quick-sighted, zealous in seeking and honoring Him; who looks out for Him in all that happens, and who would not be surprised, who would not be over-agitated or overwhelmed, if he found that He was coming at once.

And he watches with Christ, who, while he looks on to the future, looks back on the past, and does not so contemplate what his Savior has purchased for him, as to forget what He has suffered for him.

This then is to watch; to be detached from what is present, and to live in what is unseen; to live in the thought of Christ as He came once, and as He will come again; to desire His second coming, from our affectionate and grateful remembrance of His first.”

(Parochial & Plain Sermons, Volume 4, #22)

Daily Lighting of the Advent Wreath

As we make the Sign of the Cross, the leader says:

Our help is in the name of the Lord.
R/. Who made heaven and earth.

A song may be sung as the candle is lighted

O come, O come, Emmanuel,
And ransom captive Israel,
That mourns in lonely exile here
Until the Son of God appear.

Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel!

Opening Prayer

Open our minds and our hearts, O Lord,
to hear your word of promise!
Send us the Holy Spirit
to guide us through these holy days.
Quiet our worries and anxieties
and help us to wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Savior,
Jesus Christ who is Lord for ever and ever.
R/. Amen.

A reflection may be shared about the Reading

Concluding Prayer

Lord our God,
we praise you for your Son, Jesus Christ:
He is Emmanuel, the hope of the peoples,
He is the Wisdom that teaches and guides us,
He is the Savior of every nation.

Lord God,
let your blessing come upon us
as we light the candles of this wreath.

May the wreath and its light
be a sign of Christ’s promise
to bring us salvation.
May He come quickly and not delay.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
R/. Amen.

As we make the Sign of the Cross, we say:

May the Lord bless us,
protect us from all evil,
and bring us everlasting life.
R/. Amen.
